WE THE COMMITTEE, appointed by the Managers of the Contributions to the Relief and Employment of the Poor in the City of Philadelphia, to examine the Treaſurer's Accounts, and compare the ſame with the Accounts of Monies paid into his Hands, and the Orders drawn on him for the Support and Employment of the Poor; alſo for Certificates diſcharged, with the Intereſt thereon; REPORT, that there remains in the Hands of the Treaſurer Two Hundred and Fifty-five Pounds Sixteen Shillings and Four-pence Farthing, and in the Steward's Hands Thirty-five Pounds and Thirteen Shillings, agreeable to the foregoing General State of the Accounts. That the Eſtate or Stock of the Corporation amounts to Twenty-five Thouſand Eight Hundred Seventy-ſix Pounds and Eighteen Shillings, agreeable to the annexed Eſtimate, ſubject to the Incumbrance of Fourteen Thouſand Pounds, emitted by an Act of General Aſſembly, paſſed in February, 1769, which Act directs, that One Thouſand Pounds thereof ſhall annually be paid in, and ſunk out of the Taxes or other Funds of the Inſtitution. That there are now due for Goods manufactured in the Houſe of Employment Three Hundred Pounds and upwards, which Sum is not included in the Eſtimate, as it is near the ſame Amount of the Debts againſt the Inſtitution. That on examining the Monthly Reports, we find there have been manufactured in the Houſe of Employment, during the preſent Year, 3403 Yards of (ſix to ten Hundred) Linen, 1338 Yards Tow Linen, 830 Yards Woollen and Cotton Linſey, 380 Pair of Stockings, 313 Pair Leather Shoes, 4488 Pounds of different ſized Nails, and 13 Tons of Oakum picked; beſides a Quantity of Linen woven for Perſons out of the Houſe, who paid for weaving the ſame. That there have been ſupported in the Alms-houſe, incapable of any Service, for 12 Months, on a Medium, One Hundred and Sixty-five Perſons. In the Houſe of Employment, One Hundred and Twenty-five Perſons (including in the above Computation Sixty Children, all under Five Years of Age.) And that the Cloathing uſed for the Perſons reſiding in both Houſes were manufactured therein, a very few Articles excepted.

JACOB SHOEMAKER, junior, STEPHEN COLLINS,
GEORGE ROBERTS, JOHN DRINKER.

The foregoing REPORT was approved by the Board of Managers, and directed to be inſerted in the Pennſylvania Gazette, this 12th Day of May, 1770.

From the MIDDLESEX JOURNAL of March 20.

To the Publiſher of the MIDDLESEX JOURNAL.

SIR,

WHAT Lord Chatham ſaid in a ſelect Company, laſt Friday, has been much miſrepreſented in the other papers; I was preſent, and will report to you, literally, what he did ſay.

Lord Chatham.

"The Civil Liſt is appropriated in the firſt place to the ſupport of the civil government, and in the next, to the honour and dignity of the Crown; in every other reſpect the minute and particular expences of the Civil Liſt are as open to Parliamentary examination and enquiry, in regard to the application and abuſe, as any other grant of the people, to any other purpoſe: and Miniſters are equally or more culpable for incurring any unprovided expence, and for running in arrear this ſervice, as for any other. The preambles of all the Civil Liſt acts prove this, and none but children, novices or ignorants, will ever act without proper regard to it; and therefore, I can never conſent to increaſe fraudulently the civil eſtabliſhment, under pretence of making up deficiencies, nor will I ever bid ſo high for Royal favour; and the Miniſter who is bold enough to ſpend the peoples money, before it is granted (even tho' it were not for the purpoſe of corrupting their repreſentatives) and thereby leaving the people of England no other alternative, but either to diſgrace their Sovereign by not paying his debts, or to become the prey of every unthrifty and corrupt Miniſter, ſuch Miniſter deſerves death.

"The late good old King had ſomething of humanity, and amongſt many other royal and manly virtues, he poſſeſſed juſtice, truth, and ſincerity, in an eminent degree; ſo that he had ſomething about him, by which it was poſſible for you to know whether he liked you, or diſliked you.

"I have been told that I have a Penſion, and that I have recommended others to Penſions. It is true; and here is a liſt of them; you will find there the names of General Amherſt, Sir Edward Hawke, and others of the ſame nature; they were given as rewards for real ſervices, and as encouragement to other gallant heroes. They were honourably earned in a different ſort of campaigns than thoſe at Weſtminſter; they were gained by actions full of danger to themſelves, of glory and benefit to this nation; not by corrupt votes of baſeneſs, and of deſtruction to their country. You will find no SECRET ſervice there; and you will find that when the warrior was recompenſed, the member of parliament was left free. You will likewiſe find a penſion of 1500l. a year to Lord Camden. I recommended him to be Chancellor; his public and private virtues were acknowledged by all, they made his ſtation more precarious. I could not reaſonably expect from him that he ſhould quit the Chief Juſticeſhip of the Common-Pleas, which he held for life, and put himſelf in the power of thoſe who were not to be truſted, to be diſmiſſed from the Chancery, perhaps the day after his appointment. The public has not been deceived by his conduct. My ſuſpicions have been juſtified, his integrity has made him once more a poor and a private man; he was diſmiſſed for the vote he gave in favour of the Right of Election in the ſubject."

Here the North Britiſh Lord, who lately made a remarkable declaration about the Revolution, and talked of foreign force, called Lord Chatham to order. The CONFRERIE of SIXTEEN, and the MAGPIES, clamoured---to the bar---to the bar. L--- M----t moved, that Lord Chatham's words ſhould be taken down.

Lord Chatham.

"I neither deny, retract or explain theſe words. I do reaffirm the fact, and I deſire to meet the ſenſe of the houſe; I appeal to the honour of every Lord in this ------, whether he has not the ſame conviction."

Lord Rockingham, Lord Temple, and many other Lords, did on their honour moſt ſolemnly affirm the ſame.

Lord S-----h and Lord W------h would have withdrawn the motion; but Lord M-------t, encouraged by Lord M------d, perſiſted, and moved in ERSE, that nothing had appeared to juſtify ſuch an aſſertion.

Lord Chatham.

"My words remain unretracted, unexplained, and re-affirmed. I deſire to know whether I am condemned or acquitted; and whether I may ſtill preſume to hold up my head as high as the noble Lord who moved to have my words taken down."

To this no anſwer was given.

Lord Chatham.

"If I am to go off acquitted, I do now declare to you, that there are many men to impeach, and many meaſures to arraign for the ſecurity of this nation, and the very exiſtence of our laws and conſtitution; and, by God's bleſſing, I will arraign and impeach them."

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament aſſembled, preſented to his Majeſty on Friday, the Twenty-third Day of March, 1770.

Die Jovis, 22 Martii, 1770.

Moſt gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into Conſideration the Addreſs lately preſented to Your Majeſty, under the Title of, "The humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Livery of the City of London, in Common-hall aſſembled," together with the Anſwer which Your Majeſty was pleaſed to make to the ſame; think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged, upon this Occaſion, to expreſs to Your Majeſty the extreme Concern and Indignation, which we feel, at finding that an Application has been made to Your Majeſty, in Terms ſo little correſponding with that grateful and affectionate Reſpect, which Your Majeſty is ſo juſtly entitled to from all Your Subjects; at the ſame Time aſperſing and calumniating one of the Branches of the Legiſlature, and expreſly denying the Legality of the preſent Parliament, and Validity of its Proceedings.

"To preſent Petitions to the Throne, has at all Times been the undoubted Right of the Subjects of this Realm. The free Enjoyment of that Right was one of the many Bleſſings reſtored by the Revolution, and continued to us, in its fulleſt Extent, under the Princes of Your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe: And, as we are duly ſenſible of its Value and Importance, it is with the deepeſt Concern, that we now ſee the Exerciſe of it ſo groſly perverted, by being applied to the Purpoſe, not of preſerving, but of overturning the Conſtitution, and of propagating Doctrines, which, if generally adopted, muſt be fatal to the Peace of the Kingdom, and which tend to the Subverſion of all lawful Authority.

"Your Majeſty, we acknowledge with Gratitude, has ever ſhewn the moſt tender Regard to the Rights of Your People, not only in the Exerciſe of Your own Power, but in Your Care to preſerve, from every Degree of Infringement or Violation, the Powers entruſted to others. And we beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the freſh Proof You have now given us, of Your Determination to perſevere in Your Adherence to the Principles of the Conſtitution.

"Permit us alſo to aſſure Your Majeſty, that it is with the higheſt Satisfaction we ſee Your Majeſty expreſſing ſo juſt a Confidence in Your People. In whatever unjuſtifiable Exceſſes ſome few miſguided Perſons may, in this Inſtance, have been ſeduced to join, Your Majeſty's Subjects, in general, are too ſenſible of what they owe, both to Your Majeſty, and to Your illuſtrious Family, ever to be capable of approaching Your Majeſty with any other Sentiments than thoſe of the moſt entire Reſpect and Affection; and they underſtand too well their own true Intereſts to wiſh to looſen the Bands of Obedience to the Laws, and of due Subordination to lawful Authority. We are therefore fully perſuaded, that Your Majeſty's People, as well as Your Parliament, will reject with Diſdain every inſidious Suggeſtion of thoſe ill-deſigning Men, who are in Reality undermining the public Liberty, under the ſpecious Pretence of Zeal for its Preſervation; and that Your Majeſty's Attention to maintain the Liberties of Your Subjects inviolate, which You eſteem Your chief Glory, will, upon every Occaſion, prove the ſure Means of Strength to Your Majeſty, and ſecure to You that zealous and effectual Support, which none but a free People can beſtow."

His MAJESTY's moſt gracious ANSWER.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Return you My Thanks for this very loyal and dutiful Addreſs. It is with great Satisfaction that I receive from My Parliament ſo grateful an acknowledgment of My tender Regard for the Rights of My Subjects. Be aſſured, that I ſhall continue to adhere to the true Principles of our excellent Conſtitution; from which I cannot deviate, without juſtly forfeiting the Affection of a free People."

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 20.

THE Expedition againſt the Moldavians, who were ordered to be puniſhed by Fire and Sword, it is ſaid, has fallen out very unlucky for us, as a great Part of our ableſt and braveſt Troops have been killed: At the ſame Time, there are 200 Moldavians ſent hither as Slaves. The Venetian Ambaſſador is under very great Apprehenſions here, as his Republic will not declare itſelf either againſt the Turks or Ruſſians, and the Grand Signor will not permit it to remain neuter. That Ambaſſador has ſent his only Son, who was here, ſecretly by a Ship to Venice.

Dalmatia, Feb. 14. The Grand Signor has ſent a Preſent to the Khan of Tartary, of 300,000 Crowns, in order to induce that Potentate to employ his utmoſt Efforts for re-conquering Moldavia and Wallachia; and from all Appearances, the enſuing Campaign will abound in great Events.

From the Frontiers of Poland, Feb. 24. The Turks look upon the Budziak and Beſſarabian Tartary as loſt, and have put very little Truſt in them for theſe ſeveral Months.

Conſtantinople, Feb. 3. The Porte ſeems very backward in giving into any Propoſitions tending to Peace made by ſome of the Chriſtian Ambaſſadors here; on the contrary, Orders are given in all the Provinces to raiſe Recruits with the utmoſt Expedition, and the Divan flatters itſelf that their Army will be ſo very numerous, as ſoon as they open the Campaign, as to poſſeſs themſelves of Wallachia and Moldavia; and at the ſame Time the Khan of the Tartars is to fall on ſome of the Ruſſian Provinces.

Three Turkiſh Ships of War ſet ſail Yeſterday for the Archipelago. We contine to repair the Remainder with the greateſt Expedition, which will take the ſame Route as ſoon as they are ready.

The Bairam (or Feaſt) was opened here with great Order and Tranquility. The Grand Signor rode on Horſeback to the Moſque of Sultan Achmet, and his determined Air has awed the People: It is imagined, however, by many People, that this was owing chiefly to the increaſed Number of Guards which attended his Perſon, as well as of thoſe which were poſted in every Quarter of the City. The Court cannot conceal from the Public the bad Succeſs of the three Pachas, who were charged with the Conqueſt of Wallachia and Moldavia, nor the Repreſentations which the new Grand Vizir has made to the Grand Signor, that it would be impoſſible for him to make head againſt the Enemy, unleſs his Army were immediately reinforced. In Conſequence of this Advice his Highneſs has ſent Orders to the Khan of Crimea to advance with his Army, conſiſting of 50,000 Men, immediately towards Bender, to act againſt the Ruſſians in Moldavia and Wallachia; and he has preſented him 700 Purſes, to enable him to execute the Commands. It is much doubted, however, whether the Khan will undertake this Expedition, as he ſeems to fear for his own Country: And ſome People pretend to be well aſſured, that an Expreſs is already arrived here from the Khan; the Object of which is, to obtain the Conſent of this Court to a Treaty of Neutrality which he is very deſirous to conclude with the Ruſſians, conſidering the preſent Situation of Affairs.

[For new Advertiſements, ſee the Fourth Page.]

Vienna, Feb. 17. According to the last Letters from Constantinople, we learn, that the Porte has given the necessary Orders for repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Adrianople; and that 800 Workmen have lately set out for that Purpose, who are immediately to be followed by the like Number. It is assured, that the Attention of the Divan is taken up with several Schemes for pushing on the War with the utmost Vigour, during the next Campaign.

Paris, March 9. It is said, that the King has resolved to take possession of Port l'Orient in his own name, which till now has been at the disposition of the East India Company. His Majesty intends annexing it to the department of Brest.

From the Confines of Poland, March 5. Every Thing is excessive dear in this Country; so that if the Troubles in these Parts are not soon at an End, a Famine must inevitably be the Consequence.

Paris, March 12. We learn that very considerable Losses have been sustained by the Shipping on our Coasts. The City of Bourdeaux estimate their Losses at Ten Millions.

Leghorn, Feb. 22. The 17th Instant we had the most dreadful Storm that has been since the Year 1752 in these Parts; all the Vessels which were in the Road were obliged to cut their Cables, and run aground against the Tower of Morzocco. Among them is the Russian Frigate the Position, who lost her Rudder, and was much damaged; they despair of getting her afloat again. Most of the Roofs of the Houses were blown off, and the Chimnies thrown down. The Sea was so high that the Pier was entirely covered; the Flotas were driven even on the Terrace before the old Fort. In short, many Ships have been wrecked on the Coast, as well as on that of Sicily.

By the Captains HERVET and CLARKE, from Bristol; and Captain MILLER, from London, arrived at New-York, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, March 24.

A CERTAIN Great Personage in Pall-Mall came out amidst the Mob on Thursday Night, and finding they stood on no Ceremony, hid the Badge of his Dignity, and cried out, Wilkes and Liberty.

A Correspondent informs us, that a Remonstrance from the City of York will be delivered to his M-----y in the Course of next Week.

Yesterday Lord Weymouth had a private Conference with his Majesty at the Queen's Palace for near four Hours.

It was this Morning current, that a Protest of the Minority in both Houses, against certain late Proceedings, will soon take Place.

March 26. Amongst other Curiosities at the Lord Mayor's Feast on Thursday, was a Fountain so elegantly contrived, as to spout forth at different Places, Red and White Wine at the same Time.

By Letters arrived in Town this Day from Edinburgh, we are informed, that a Report is current there, that Orders are come from the War Office, for his Majesty's Troops, now in Scotland, to hold themselves in Readiness to march on a short Warning, but it is not conjectured yet, which Route they are to take.

March 27. 'Tis said Lord Chatham is in Possession of some Papers of great Consequence, transmitted to him from the East-Indies, relative to the treacherous Machinations of the French at the Courts of three powerful Princes of that Country.

By the last private Advices from the Continent, we are informed, several recent Cabinet Councils have been held at Paris, to take into serious Consideration the rapid progress of the Russian Arms against the Turks, which, if continued, will be an Object highly necessary for the belligerant Powers of Europe (Great-Britain excepted) to frustrate and prevent, for Reasons well known to the versed in the present political State of Europe.

This Day we hear that Lord Chatham will declare in a certain great Assembly, his Authority for asserting some time ago in the same Place, that the French had struck a Blow against Great-Britain in some part of the Globe.---And it is also said, that he will disclose a Scene that will strike certain Great Personages with Terror and Confusion.

Lord Bute will be in Town the Week after the Prorogation of Parliament.

A Correspondent at Birmingham informs us, that a Committee of Warwickshire Freeholders will shortly be held in that Town, to consider of a Remonstrance to the Throne.

We are assured, that out of 306,000 Cattle, which have been affected with the Disorder in Holland, 142,000 died, and 164,000 recovered.

A Rupture was said to be expected between Denmark and Sweden, on Account of the secret Engagements of the latter with France, when the last Advices were received from Copenhagen.

A Member of the P---y C------l observed on a late Occasion, that the Ministry could never expect to find such another Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench so devoted to their Interest, should the present Occupier be removed to the Chancellorship.

It is given out by some Persons, that two Impeachments of an alarming Nature will be made by a Noble Lord in a few Days.

It is reported, that Lord Chatham, and some other patriotic Noblemen, will shortly make an Enquiry into certain Embezzlements of the public Money.

March 28. The Tweed Frigate, now lying at Chatham, is ordered to be got ready for the Earl of Dunmore, in order to carry his Lordship to his Government of New-York, for which he intends to embark in a few Days.

March 30. Wednesday, at 12 o'clock, there was a very numerous Meeting of the Electors of Westminster, at Westminster-hall, according to a previous Notice advertised for that Purpose.

Sir Robert Bernard took the Chair, which was placed on the upper Step of the Court of Common Pleas about 12 o'Clock, attended by Dr. Wilson, ------- Connelle, Esq; Mr. Martyn, Mr. Churchill, and a Number of Gentlemen from the Standard Tavern, where they had a previous Meeting. Mr. Martyn opened the Assembly, by acquainting the Freeholders, that he held in his Hand a Petition, Remonstrance and Address to his Majesty, for a Redress of Grievances, which was agreed to by the Chairman, and Committee of the Electors of Westminster, and hoped it would likewise meet with their Concurrence. Upon which the Chairman got up and asked, "Whether it was their Pleasure it should be read." On the general Cry of "read, read," Mr. Martyn read it with a proper Emphasis and Audibility. The Subject of the Remonstrance contained little more in Substance than that lately presented by the Livery of London, except the last Article:---It is to the following Purpose:

"That as his Majesty was graciously pleased to signify to the Remonstrants of the City of London, That he would always be ready to hear the Complaints of his People, and willing to redress them; that they the Electors of Westminster, depending on his Royal Word, now claimed that Redress; and therefore requested of his M-----y, that, as a very essential Part of the Rights of the People were taken away, by the Authority exerted by the ----- of ------- chusing a R--------e of their own, instead of accepting one chosen by them; that to restore the Constitution to its original State, his M-----y would be pleased to d----- the p----t P------."

This Remonstrance being Nem. Con. agreed to by the holding up of Hands, Mr. Martyn made a Motion, which was seconded by Mr. Connelle, that the Chairman and Committee (25 in Number) should sign it, in Behalf of the whole, and immediately wait on his M-----y, to know when he would be pleased to receive it. This Motion was likewise universally assented to; and the Business of the Day was conducted with great Order and Unanimity, and an Address of Thanks voted to Sir Robert Bernard, Bart. the Chairman, for his great Care and Attention to the Interest of the Electors of Westminster in particular, and to the Good of the Constitution in general.

Mr. Martyn addressed himself to them, and recommended, that if they attended the Committee to St. James's, they would preserve good Order.

After which Sir Robert Bernard, ----- Connelle, Esq; and Mr. Martyn, went from the Standard Tavern to St. James's; and it being Levee-day they were admitted. Sir Robert delivered the Remonstrance open into the King's Hands; his Majesty made no Answer, but gave it to one of the Lords in Waiting, who delivered it to another Lord, and he to a Groom of the Bedchamber, who carried it off.

On the Return of the Croud from Westminster-hall they met the Sp----r of the H---- of C-----s going in State, whom they attended from Parliament-street to Westminster, with continual Groanings and Hissings. Some of them were so indecent as to run up to the Side of his Carriage, and insult him.

It is said that Lord P---y was ordered to his Regiment in Ireland, to prevent his taking the Chair at the above Meeting on Wednesday; on which Day he set out for Ireland.

It is confidently said, that though the Westminster Members were desired to present the Westminster Remonstrance, they declined having any Thing to do with it.

We are assured from the best Authority, that it was last Night resolved in C-----l, in case any more Remonstrances should be presented to the K. to give them the same Reception as that of Westminster.

April 3. We are informed, that the Enlargement of Mr. Wilkes will be demanded immediately after Sun-set on Tuesday, the 17th Instant, according to an antient Custom in the King's Bench Prison.

It is also reported, that a noble Lord has presented a Plan to a Great Personage, for the accommodating the present unhappy Divisions.

We hear the Marquis of Rockingham is to have a Conference with a Great Personage in a few Days, on the Subject of some very important Matters, which, it is thought, will greatly contribute to reconcile the present Party Dissensions.

It is now certain, that a noble Person, for his late Conduct on his present political Principles, will be soon deprived of that Addition to his Titles, which gives him the Military Government of a certain County.

It is also said, that the only Thing which has retarded the Execution of the above Measure, is a Dispute concerning his Successor; though we believe the M------r's Eye is more particularly pointed at a certain Object.

We hear from undoubted Authority, the Reason why so many Encampments are now forming round this Metropolis, is only intended as a preventative Measure, to preserve the Peace, if disturbed by an unruly Mob, on the Enlargement of a popular Prisoner.

Saturday the Hon. Capt. Levison Gower, Brother to Earl Gower, set out from Pall-Mall for Portsmouth, in order to take on him the Command of one of the Men of War belonging to the Fleet, which is shortly to sail from thence to the Mediterranean, to watch the Motions of the French and Spanish Fleets, and to see whether they will offer to obstruct the Passage of the Russian Fleet. In case of an Attempt of this Kind, it is thought the latter will be joined by the English Fleet, though the Consequence should be involving Great-Britain in a War.

No Accounts had been received Yesterday at Noon by any of the Merchants corresponding to Portugal, nor by the Government, of the fatal Commotion said lately to have happened in that Kingdom; so that the Report is probably a mere Fiction, trumped up to assist some Change-Alley Business.

They write from Leghorn, that Advice had just been received of a smart Engagement between three Russian Men of War and seven Tripolitan Corsairs, in which four of the latter were sunk, one burnt, and one run on Shore.

A Letter from Galipoli mentions, that twenty Sail of Turkish Men of War are now riding near the Mouth of the Hellespont, to dispute the Passage of the Russian Fleet.

An Ambassador extraordinary is soon expected in London from Constantinople, charged with a Commission of great Importance, from his Sublime Highness the Grand Signor to the King of Great-Britain.

Yesterday an Express arrived at the Secretary of State's Office, from his Excellency General Gage, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Land Forces in North-America.

This Morning the Right Hon. the Earl of Hillsborough, Secretary of State for the Plantations, had a numerous Levee, at which several principal American Merchants and Colony Agents attended.

It is now said to be certain, that a Request for Diss------n will not take Place; but that to accommodate Matters, a Reconsideration of particular Resolves is determined to be complied with.

It is said that Overtures have been made to the Minority, which, it is said, is likely to bring about a Reconciliation.

It is confidently reported, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, who so greatly distinguished himself in the Course of last War, has accepted of a Commission in the French King's Service.

We are informed that a Remonstrance of a very spirited Nature is preparing, and will soon be presented by the Nobility and Gentlemen in the Opposition.

We are further informed, that the Minority in both Houses will sign the above Address individually.

A Letter from Barcelona, dated March 17, says, "The Mail which is just arrived here, brings an Account of a great many Losses in the Mediterranean by the late bad Weather.

By Letters from Glocester we are informed, that they are making there the greatest Preparations, in order to celebrate the Day of Mr. Wilkes's Enlargement.

April 6. A certain Great Personage was very rudely treated by the Populace on Friday Night, in going from the Theatre.

On Saturday last the following Lines, wrote in large Characters, were seen stuck up against the Walls of St. James's Palace, viz.

A PROPHECY.

"A cold Winter;---a mild Spring;
"A bloody Summer;---a DEAD-----."

The above being taken Notice of, it is said One Thousand Pounds Reward will be offered to find out the Author.

We hear that a certain Great Personage will not appear again in Public, till after her approaching Delivery.

On Tuesday next (the 8th Instant) it is said, both Houses of Parliament will adjourn for the Easter Holidays; and meet again on Monday, the 23d Instant. The Reason of meeting after the Holidays is on Account of the Budget, which, it is said, consists of only a Lottery; and the Consideration of some Business relative to a forfeited Estate in Scotland. It is expected, the Parliament will be prorogued about the 8th or 10th of May.

In several Places in St. James's Park, and on the Walls in the Neighbourhood of the Parliament House, these Words have been written, in Letters near a Foot long.---Impeach the ----'s Mother ---Impeach the D------r---Impeach her!

In the lower Room of the Robinhood Society, on Monday Night, on the State of the Nation, the Majority of Friday last became again the Minority, the Numbers being considerably above 200 to 70 odd.

It is said, a Gentleman has received some extraordinary Intelligence lately, of some secret Preparations, and Intentions, respecting our old Friends, who never can be idle, and are now united, and formed into a Combination, not only to oppose our Trade, but are going on, in a most secret Manner, to destroy it. The Gentleman, we are told, has, in a most dutiful Manner, addressed a Great Personage, that he may be heard before the Secretary of State, in humble Hopes Notice may be taken of it; but if left to Chance, a Number of ill Consequences to this Nation will attend it, notwithstanding all Fr--ch Evasions to the contrary.

That a War is both seriously talked of at Court, and expected will soon happen, is a Piece of Intelligence that may be depended on.

Reports are now industriously circulating, that the American Affairs will, at last, be brought to a happy Period; but many Gentlemen, skilled in the Temper of the Colonies, greatly doubt it, for there was a Time (say they) when the Minds of the Americans were susceptible of whatever Impressions the Mother Country wished to communicate; there was a Time, when their Affections were unalienated; and there was a Time, when we were no less felt than acknowledged of the most eminent Importance to their Convenience and Welfare. But they had not then Manufactories established amongst them; they had not then discovered, that Money was the Key to every Port, and the Pass-port in all Climates.

BOSTON, May 14.

Letters from New-York and Philadelphia, intimating, that it has been reported in those Capitals, the Merchants of this Town determined to break thro' their Agreement, and import Fall Goods, notwithstanding the Continuance of the Tea Duty; we can assure the Public that nothing can be further from Truth, nor has the Spirit of the Trade at any Time appeared more determined. The Bulk of the Goods which came contrary to Agreement, tho' shipped by Persons who had not signed, are now put on board the Lydia, Capt. Scott, and do not fill the Hold by a fourth Part. No one, beside the old Importers, has yet had the Stupidity to act so much in Opposition to the Sense of their Country, as to persist in Violation of its unanimous Resolution, and we believe that our Trade with Great-Britain will not be open till the whole of the late Revenue-Acts are repealed.

We have advice from London, that his Excellency Sir Francis Bernard had been heard before his Majesty in Council, in Answer to the Complaints made against him by this Province, and was honourably acquitted.

NEWPORT, May 14.

Last Tuesday, at a Meeting of the Freeholders of the Town of Boston, the Hon. James Bowdoin, Esq; Hon. Thomas Cushing, Esq; Mr. Samuel Adams, and Hon. John Hancock, Esq; were chosen Representatives of that Town.

NEW-YORK, May 21.

Friday last there was a Meeting of a numerous Body of the Merchants and Traders in this City, to debate on the Subject Matter of Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, when, we hear, nothing more was finally agreed on than to wait a few Weeks longer, in Hopes of hearing the Duty on Tea would also be repealed; and therefore no Orders to be given till further Advices arrive.

The Mail for London, by the Duke of Cumberland Packet, Captain Goodridge, closes at the Post-Office on Saturday, the 2d Day of June.

The following is the Postscript of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in this City, dated the 26th of March.

"I had forgot, when I concluded this Letter, to tell you that large Quantities of Goods have been lately shipped, and are now daily shipping for Virgnia, Maryland, Rhode-Island, Boston, and Montreal, which will doubtless circulate all through the Colonies; the greatest Part of what are shipped, and shipping, are by Strangers, unaccustomed to the Trade, so that unless the old Traders should order Goods, the Trade will of course circulate through a new Channel."

Capt. Russel, in 5 Weeks from Newry, the 6th Inst. in Lat. 38. 21, Lon. 60, spoke with the Brig Coffee, from Philadelphia for Lisbon.

The 8th of May, in Lat. 40, 28, Lon. 58, Capt. Clark spoke with the Ship Admiral Hawke, Capt. M'Caddon, from Philadelphia for Lisbon.

Friday Morning last the Harriot Packet, Capt. Lee, sailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.

To the PRINTERS.

GENTLEMEN,

BEING sensible of the vast Importance of continuing the Resolutions of our Merchants, until our Grievances are redressed, I was much pleased with a Piece in the Chronicle, signed, A TRADESMAN, encouraging his Brethren to enter into Resolutions of denying their Custom to any who should dare an Infraction of the mercantile Resolutions. But as our Merchants have done much already, and there is something which I think the People ought to do, and which, in my Opinion, would doubly enforce the Resolutions of the Merchants, and would render them more stable and firm; I beg that you would convey the following Queries to the Public, through the Channel of your Paper.

Yours, PLEBARIUS.

1. Whether the Conduct of the Administration, upon hearing that New-England had broke through its Resolutions, does not shew us plainly, that the Way to obtain Redress, is by enabling our Merchants to continue firm in the Resolution of Non-importation?

2. Whether such Merchants as lived solely by their Trade with Great-Britain, and find themselves much straitened by the Non-importation Agreement, are obliged to continue it, for the Good of the Public, unless the Public agree by some Means to provide for their Subsistance, so as they alone may not be Sufferers in so good a Cause?

3. Whether we ought not to take Example by the People of England, who, when they could not support the Cause of Liberty in Paoli with their Lives, were not slack to aid him with their Fortunes?

4. Whether a Subscription should not be opened in every Part of the Province, in order to indemnify, in some Measure, such Merchants as are likely to suffer in the Cause of Liberty?

5. Whether there can be a Man in the Province, who would not generously and freely subscribe to support them in their Resolutions, so long as he is able to support himself; and whether, as long as there is a Penny in the Province, they may not expect a Share of it?

6. Whether this Resolution of the People, either to indemnify the non-importing Merchants, or at least to keep them from suffering by their patriotic Resolutions, would not be the most effectual Way of convincing the Ministry, that the Resolutions of the American Merchants, are neither that of a Party or Faction, but of every Man in British America, and not to be despised or trifled with?"

A few Days ago a Rumour was spread, that the Merchants of Newport, in Rhode-Island, had basely violated their Non-importation Agreement, which they had freely plighted their Word and Honour to maintain inviolably, until the Revenue Act against America was repealed: This Report, notwithstanding it appeared well authenticated, could hardly gain Credit, it being thought there could not be found in America any Sett of Men, much less a whole Town, so devoid of Honour, so lost to all Sense of Liberty, as, for any dirty Consideration of present Gain, to sacrifice that which alone can make Life comfortable, and to sell their Birthright for a Mess of Pottage; but on Tuesday last, we are informed, the Merchants Committee here received by the Post a Letter from the late Committee of Newport, confirming the Truth of the Report. The News of this base Defection was hardly communicated, when a Vessel came in Sight from Newport. The People, fired with Indignation at the base Conduct of the Newport Merchants, in order to shew their Abhorrence and Detestation of their Proceedings, unanimously resolved to have no Dealings, Traffick or Commerce with them, but to look on them as Betrayers of the Liberties of America.

In Consequence of a Summons issued for a Meeting of the Artificers, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, Mechanicks, and others, to be held Yesterday at the State-House, a considerable and respectable Body of them met there, and unanimously came into the following Resolutions.

First, We will, by all prudential Ways and Means, endeavour to render the Non-importation, as it now ſtands, permanent, and prevent any the leaſt Violation of it.

Secondly, We will exert our Influence for the Promotion of American Manufactures, both by uſing them ourſelves, and by recommending them to others.

Thirdly, Should any Perſon or Perſons be found ſo dead to all the warm Emotions of the Heart, even when Liberty is at Stake! as to import contrary to the Spirit and Intention of the preſent Non-importation Agreement, we will never purchaſe any Article whatever of ſuch Perſons, and when the preſent momentous Struggle is paſt, and our conſtitutional Rights reſtored, we will hold them in the moſt abject Contempt, and treat them accordingly.

Fourthly, As the Rhode-Iſlanders have been found deficient in their public Faith, pledged to the other Colonies, for maintaining a Non-importation Agreement, it is requeſted by this Meeting, that Captain Whitman, who arrived here on Tueſday laſt, with a Cargoe from Newport, will, as ſoon as poſſible, depart quietly from this Port, without attempting to unload any Part of his Cargoe, it being the Determination of this Meeting, not to have any Intercourſe with that Colony, until they return to their former Agreement, or until the Revenue Act is totally repealed.

Fifthly, We will attend the General Meeting appointed to be held on the 5th of June next, and ſupport the Reſolutions of this Day to the utmoſt of our Abilities.

Extract of a Letter from London, March 22.

"Junius's Letters are attributed to Lord George Sackville, Edmund Burke, Mrs. M'Caulay, and Lord Shelburne's Chaplain, but which is the real Author, is very uncertain. With all their Eloquence, and fine turned Periods, the Partiality of Party ſhines but too viſibly thro' them; however, excepting the Marquis of Granby, and Sir William Draper, moſt of the other Characters attacked, are ſuch whoſe Deformities deſerve no Quarter; for to be ſure the Dukes of B-----d and G-----n, Lord S------h, Lord D-----h, Lord M---h, Lord C---e, Lord B--g---e, Sir F------r N----n, and above all R-----d R-g-y, are matchleſs Perſons in theſe lower Regions; ſuch are the Men that grace the Court of GEORGE the Third, ſaid to be a good natured virtuous Prince! It is however to be lamented, that too much of the Spirit of Oppoſition ariſes from diſappointed Ambition; and tho' many very reſpectable, and a few very amiable Characters, are engaged therein, there is ſuch a Number of a different Caſt and Character, that it cannot but fill the Minds of all Perſons of Diſcernment, who are Well-wiſhers to the Proſperity of this Country, with the worſt of Apprehenſions of what may be the Conſequence."

Captain Friend from London, on the 3d Inſtant, in Lat. 32: 48, Long. 62: 4, ſpoke a Sloop from New-London for Barbados, 6 Days out; and on the 5th, in Lat. 32: 50, he ſpoke a Schooner from New-London for Bermuda, 6 Days out, all well.

Captain Volans, from Briſtol, on the 30th of April, in Lat. 38: 38, Long. 53, ſpoke the Brig Patty, Captain Hardie, from this Port for Liſbon, 12 Days out, all well; and on the 6th Inſt. in Lat. 38: 27, Long. 64, he ſpoke the Schooner Anthony, Captain Samſon, alſo from this Port for Liſbon, 11 Days out.

Captain Brannon, from Liſbon, on the 10th Inſtant, in Lat. 35: 55, Long. 68: 14, ſpoke a Schooner, Captain Allibone, from this Place for the Grenades, 4 Days out.

Captain Keith, from Cork, on the 7th Inſtant, in Lat. 38: 24, Long. 66: 30, ſpoke the Sloop Dolphin, Captain Dilling, from Newberry for Dominica, out 7 Days, having ſprung her Bowſprit two Days before, in a Gale of Wind, otherwiſe all well.

Monday laſt the Sloop Nancy, Captain Alexander, arrived here from North-Carolina; with whom came Paſſenger Captain Anthony Shoemaker, late of the Ship Charming Polly, bound from London to Ocracock, in North-Carolina, whoſe Veſſel was caſt away on the 15th of laſt Month, on Cape-Hatteras Shoals, and ſoon after beat to Pieces, in a Gale of Wind, at N. E. by E. being thick dirty Weather, the People with Difficulty ſaved themſelves. At the ſame Time the Snow Lillie, Captain Ewer, from Glaſgow for Ocracock, was caſt away about 10 Miles to the Northward, on the Beach, the People and Cargoe ſaved, but the Veſſel loſt; the Sloop Polly, inward bound from the Weſt-Indies for North-Carolina, loſt about 15 Miles to the Southward of him; and a Schooner, outward bound for the Weſt-Indies, loſt about 3 Miles from the Bar of Ocracock, the People all ſaved.

By Captain Hanſe from Jamaica we learn, that on the 9th of January his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Jamaica, was caſt away on the Colleradoes, on her Paſſage from that Iſland for Penſacola; and that on the 14th ult. as he came out, he ſaw a Spaniſh Sloop going into Port Royal with her Crew.

Captain Hanſe informs, that they were under no Apprehenſions there of a Viſit from the Spaniards; that martial Law was proclaimed for a few Days, during the Eaſter Holidays, as cuſtomary, but was taken off before he ſailed.

Captain Thompſon from Jamaica, on the 12th of laſt Month, off of Cape Anthony, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Whitmore, belonging to New-London, bound to New-York from Jamaica; and the ſame Day he ſpoke a Brig, Captain Alkinſon, from Jamaica for Salem, all well.

Captain Young, from the Bay of Honduras, adviſes, that a large Ship, called the St. Elizabeth, commanded by Captain Wilſon, and bound from Jamaica for London, was caſt away on the 31ſt of March, on Glover's Reef; the People ſaved, and the next Day ſeveral Boats, Schooners, &c. went from the Bay, in Search of the Wreck, in order to get what they could from her. On the 14th Inſtant, in Lat. 36, juſt on Soundings, he ſpoke the Sloop Rabby, Captain Ayres, from Rhode-Iſland for Charles-Town, 4 Days out, all well.

Philadelphia, May 21, 1770.

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RAN away yeſterday morning from the ſubſcribers mill, on Pennypack, an Iriſh ſervant lad, named Hugh Baker, a forward, hearty, active fellow, about 19 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, has a tolerable good countenance, rather pale, and when ſpoke to, is apt to move his face to and fro, as well as to keep his body and feet in motion; walks clumſily; he can write and caſt up invoices and accounts; wears remarkably long brown hair, ſometimes tied behind; he may perhaps cut it off, to prevent his being apprehended. Had on, and took with him, a half worn beaver hat, two white ſhirts, one new, the other ſomewhat wore, two pair of ſtriped trowſers, one a ſmall ſtripe, almoſt new, the other a broad ſtripe; two ſhort jackets, one linſey, without ſleeves, with pewter buttons, the other a new lapelled ſerge, lined with white, mohair buttons, and has ſleeves; new ſhoes, and a pair of buckſkin breeches, almoſt new. It is ſuppoſed he has taken ſome money with him, as he has been entruſted with ſelling of goods out of the mill. He was met yeſterday by a perſon coming from Cheſter to Philadelphia, on the road, travelling downwards, with a deſign, as is ſuppoſed, to get on board of the man of war that now lies at New-Caſtle, or ſome veſſel that may be at Reedy Iſland, as he attempted it about twelve months ago. Whoever ſecures ſaid ſervant in any goal, ſo that the ſubſcribers may have him again, ſhall be intitled to the above reward, beſides reaſonable charges, from ROBERT and ELLIS LEWIS.

N. B. All maſters of veſſels are forbid to carry him off at their peril.

BRISTOL BATH.

THE public are hereby acquainted, that the great advantages derived to a number of diſeaſed perſons, during laſt ſeaſon, from the uſe of the Briſtol Chalybeate Waters, hath induced the preſent poſſeſſors to enlarge their original plan, ſo as to make it more commodious and uſeful; there are now two diſtinct baths in ſeparate rooms, with each a convenient dreſſing room.

Theſe waters have had the moſt happy effects on diſorders ariſing from obſtructions in the liver, and meſenteric glands, indigeſtion, loſs of appetite, and pain in the ſtomach, a relaxed and weakened ſtate of the ſolids, in which, with great propriety, they may be termed ſpecifick, in rheumatic complaints, palſies and nervous cholicks, they have proved greatly beneficial, &c. &c.

Whoever would uſe them to advantage, ſhould do it with the advice of their phyſician; and ſuch perſons whoſe circumſtances do not admit the expence of advice, will have it gratis, by a Gentleman practiſing phyſick in Briſtol.

In order more fully to aſcertain the virtue of theſe waters, an exact regiſter is intended to be kept of every perſon uſing the ſame, with its effects, for which purpoſe it is deſired that ſuch perſons who intend to try them, would bring a ſhort account of their caſe, drawn up by the Doctor attending them.

Proper lodgings will be procured, on a day's notice, by JOHN PRIESTLEY, or CHARLES BESSONETT, in the borough of Briſtol.

BY Virtue of a Writ of Venditioni Exponas to me directed, will be expoſed to public Sale, on Thurſday, the 7th Day of June next, on the Premiſes, a certain Tract or Parcel of Land, ſituate in Lower Smithfield Townſhip, Northampton County, adjoining the Lands of Garret Brodhead, and containing 150 Acres, whereof there are about 8 Acres cleared, with a good Dwelling-houſe thereon, and being within Half a Mile of a good Griſt-mill and Saw-mill, the Land late the Property of John Smith; ſeized and taken in Execution, and to be ſold by JOHN JENNINGS, Sheriff.

BY Virtue of a Writ of Venditioni Exponas to me directed, will be expoſed to public Sale, on Tueſday, the 19th Day of June next, at Eaſton, in Northampton County, a certain Meſſuage or Tenement, and Lot of Ground, ſituate in Northampton-ſtreet, in Eaſton aforeſaid. Alſo an Out-Lot of 5 Acres of Land, adjoining the ſaid Town; late the Property of Peter Eabler; ſeized and taken in Execution, and to be ſold by JOHN JENNINGS, Sheriff.

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by DAVID HALL, and WILLIAM SELLERS, at the NEW PRINTING-OFFICE, near the Market.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) April 25.

To the GENERAL COMMITTEE of Philadelphia, and Province of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN,

AN authentic Account of a Bill, ordered to be brought into the House of Commons, to repeal so much of an Act of the 7th of his present Majesty, as imposes a Duty on Paper, Glass, and Painters Colours, imported into the British Colonies in America, occasions this Address to you.

It is with the deepest Grief we observe, the Oppressions of America so little regarded, as, that Duties on a few Articles, more ruinous in their Precedent, than fatal in their present Operations, should become the serious Objects of Parliamentary Attention, while the grand Evils, which affect the Life and Soul of American Happiness, are totally disregarded.

When the Resolutions were formed (surrounded with Difficulties as we were) on the only Plan we had left for the Recovery of our ancient Liberties (and which, we are convinced, will ultimately have their desired Effect, if we have but Virtue enough to resist the Allurements of present Gain, in Favour of the inestimable Blessings of our envied Constitution) for Want of a Communication with each other, the Colonies adopted Plans, various in Extent of Matter, and Limitations of Time: This Province, as it was among the last, so it has been the most comprehensive, and well considering that Liberty in Retail, is but another Term for Slavery, they have included every Object which tends to sap the Foundation of their Freedom,---while the Board of Commissioners are permitted to riot with such an Extent of unrelenting Power; while our Property is subject to be dragged from Colony to Colony, under the Controul of an oppressive Admiralty, we are not free: And while these Acts continue in Force, we are chained down by our Resolutions: Such is our present Situation, in which we glory. The Day of Trial is but approaching: Unanimity is absolutely necessary: And we are positive nothing but an Exertion of the purest Virtue, in the Prosecution of one generally adopted Plan, can possibly revive our expiring Constitution. Should any of our Sister Colonies take an Advantage of the Repeal of these trifling Duties, we think it had been infinitely better to have submitted quietly to the Yoke, than to have discovered the deepest Knowledge of our Constitution, and a most ardent Desire of preserving it: Yet, when a Variety of Circumstances combine to insure our Success, we think it would be highly dishonourable to sink into a slavish Inactivity, when a spirited and steady Conduct can alone crown our Hopes.

The People of this Province have bound themselves, in the general Cause of American Liberty, by extending their Resolutions, until the Whole of their Complaints are removed. It would be a capital Crime in us to suspect the public Virtue of our Countrymen; nor can we even suppose, in the most distant Manner, this Province will fall a Sacrifice to the Purity of her Intentions. The Security of our inherent injured Rights, was the Foundation of our Agreements; until that Security is amply obtained, nothing can be said to be done. The principal Arguments in the House of Commons were founded on the Division of the Colonies; the Impracticability of manufacturing, and the Impossibility of continuing firm in our Non-importation. Let us convince them of our Unanimity, and the Falsity of those dishonourable Reports, which declare any Breach of Consequence in our sacred Engagements, and we may be certain of Success. That Individuals will be found in every Colony, who, dead to all the warm Emotions of the Heart, even when Liberty is at Stake, will sacrifice the only Blessings, which make Life comfortable, to the dirty Consideration of present Emolument, is nothing extraordinary. Worthless Men are the Produce of every Climate: They serve only as a Foil to set off the Cause: And unless we become Traitors to our own Liberties, we have little to fear.

Our Countrymen in Great-Britain are equally engaged in the Defence of the Constitution. Surrounded on all Sides with the Minions of Government, the best Men in the Nation have pledged themselves for its Defence. These Patriots are equally the Objects of our Admiration and Imitation. And as our Blood and our Rights flow equally from the same Source, we should scandalize the rough unremitting Virtue of our Ancestors, did we not follow their Example. Let us suppose the worst that can befal us, that the Iron Hand of Power will at last prevail, and trample upon every Right of American Liberty; yet we think it an indispensable Duty, which we owe to our Country and Descendants, inflexibly to persevere to the last, and let Posterity record, FORCE obtained a Triumph over PUBLIC VIRTUE; and though we fell, we fell with a Dignity and Spirit becoming the Sons of GREAT-BRITAIN. We are,

Your most affectionate Countrymen,

Signed,

By Order of the General Committee,

JOHN NEUFVILLE, Chairman.

NEW-YORK, May 14.

To the COMMITTEE of MERCHANTS at NEW-YORK.

GENTLEMEN, BOSTON, May 5, 1770.

AS several Vessels have lately arrived here from London, and it has been industriously propagated to the Disadvantage of the Town, that the Trade has been endeavouring to break through the Non-importation Agreement, and have imported large Quantities of Goods, we take the earliest Opportunity to acquaint you of the Proceedings of the Trade, in Consequence of these Arrivals.

"In the Course of this Month, the Captains Davies, Freeman, Briant, and others, arrived from London, most of them having some Goods, though none fully loaded. A Meeting of all Persons concerned in Trade was immediately called, and as it appeared probable, that by the next Vessel we might receive the News of the Repeal of the Act imposing Duties on Tea, Glass, Paper, and Colours, which would open the Trade, it was voted, that it was desired that all Persons who had imported any Goods contrary to Agreement, would immediately deliver them up to the Committee of Inspection, to be stored till Advice should be received of the Repeal, and the Goods be released by a general Vote of the Trade; every Importer was served with a Copy of this Vote, and the Meeting adjourned to Wednesday last. In the mean Time Captain Scott arrived with the News of a Bill being brought into the House of Commons for a partial Repeal, that the Duties on Glass, Paper, and Colours, was to be taken off, but that on Tea to remain.

"At the Adjournment of the Meeting it appeared, that as the Act was not like to be totally repealed, the Orders of the Trade in general remained unexecuted, and that some few Persons, by giving their Orders in a very loose Manner, and others on the Spot, to our Surprize, imagining that this partial Repeal would satisfy the Americans, had their Goods shipped. The Trade hereupon unanimously voted---That every Person who had imported any Goods in the last Vessels, would be desired immediately to re-ship them, and a Committee was appointed to wait on them, and obtain their immediate Answer.

"The Importers were at first unwilling to re-ship, and were desirous of storing them on the Terms of the first Vote; but as they were convinced their re-shipping them would be more satisfactory to the Body of the People, they have voluntarily consented to ship them back to London by the first Vessels, except such Articles as are allowed by Agreement to be imported, and Tea, which cannot be returned.---The Tea is to be stored by the Committee, and under their Care, till a general Importation shall take Place.

"Two Vessels are put up, in order to carry the Goods back, Captains Scott and Freeman; the former will perhaps sail this Week, fully loaded with British Manufactures, the other soon after, as the utmost Care will be taken to dispatch them as soon as possible.

"Thus, Gentlemen, you see that the Trade are determined steadily to adhere to the Agreement they voluntarily entered into, and not to give over till the great Object of their Pursuit is obtained. We doubt not the other Colonies are as firmly resolved, in case any Goods arrive, to pursue the like Steps, and hope that as we have hitherto been united in our Exertions for the common Good, we shall continue to be so; which may be a happy Means, under Providence, to secure to us those invaluable Rights and Privileges which our Ancestors dearly purchased, and which we, their Descendants, are under the strongest Obligations to defend. That the Blessings of the British Constitution, according to Revolution Principles, and true English Liberty, may be the Portion of America, to the latest Posterity, is the sincere and ardent Wish of, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient and humble Servants."

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

Agreeable to my Engagement, I now send the Depositions of several reputable Inhabitants of this County, which I request you will immediately lay before the Public in your Paper. I flatter myself, that these Depositions will satisfy the impartial Public, that the Charges brought against me are false, malicious, and totally groundless. I am, Gentlemen, Your most obedient,

Lancaster, May 16, 1770. ISAAC MYER.

Berks County, ss. THE Examination of Henry Bough, of Heidelberg Township, in the County of Lancaster, Yeoman, who, upon his solemn Oath, on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, doth depose and say, That on the 29th Day of January, 1770, he this Deponent was employed to draw a Conveyance from Henry Mosser to Isaac Myer, in Fee for the Plantation of the said Mosser, situate in the said Township, containing One Hundred and Forty Acres, more or less---That the said Mosser, at the executing of the said Deed, was perfectly sober---That the Contents of the said Deed were particularly made known, and fully explained to him---That the said Deed was not antidated, but executed on the Day it bears Date---That at the Time of the Execution of the said Deed Hans Adam Mosser, the Father of the said Henry Mosser, was living, and though he had executed a Deed for the Premises to his Son Henry, yet he kept the Deeds thereof in his Possession---That at the Time of the Execution of the said Deed, the said Isaac Myer engaged to pay to the said Henry Mosser, the Sum of One Thousand Pounds-----That some Time after the old Man's Death, William Schneider came to the said Deponent's House, and said, he was sent by Mosser to get Myer to come to the said Deponent's House, to agree with him about the Purchase and Payment of his Place, and in the Afternoon of the same Day Mosser came to the Deponent's House, and then and there Mr. Myer and the said Mosser entered into an Agreement, of which the following is a true Copy-----"ARTICLES of Agreement, made and concluded this 29th Day of January, A. D. 1770, by and between Henry Mosser, of the Township of Heidelberg, in the County of Lancaster, and Province of Pennsylvania, of the one Part, and Isaac Myer, of the Township, County, and Province aforesaid, WITNESSETH; that the said Henry Mosser, for and in Consideration of the Sum of Ten Hundred Pounds, have granted and sold, and by these Presents doth grant, bargain and sell, to the said Isaac Myer, or his Heirs, One certain Tract of Land, lying and being in the Township aforesaid, adjoining Christian Lehman, Nicholas Mosser, Henry Kappenhaver, Isaac Myer, and Simon Bassler; and the above Sum is to be paid as follows, that is to say, £300 in May next, and £300 in Sales, according to the last Will and Testament, and after they are paid, the Sum of £50 yearly, until the whole Sum of £1000 are fully paid. And the said Henry Mosser, and his Heirs, shall and will deliver free and quiet Possession of the aforesaid Tract of Land unto the aforesaid Isaac Myer, or his Heirs, on or before the first Day of April next, with all the Grain in the Ground, and with all the Appurtenances thereunto belonging. IN WITNESS whereof, both Parties bind themselves to each other in the penal Sum of Two Thousand Pounds, lawful Money. IN WITNESS whereof, they have hereunto interchangeably set their Hands and Seals, this 29th Day of January, A. D. 1770.

HENRY MOSSER, L. S.
ISAAC MYER, L. S.

Sealed and delivered in the Presence of JACOB SMITH,
HENRY BOUGH."

That at the Time of the executing the said Agreement, the said Henry Mosser was perfectly sober---That before they entered into it, they had a Conversation about the Purchase and Payment of the said Land, and Mr. Myer particularly cautioned him against drinking, and directed this Deponent repeatedly, not to let him have any Drink---That at the Time of the said Agreement, the said Henry Mosser declared, that he had given to his Brother a Mortgage of the said Premises, for Twelve Hundred Pounds, though no more than One Hundred and Thirty Pounds were due to him, which was to be paid by the said Isaac Myer, to his said Brother, and deducted out of the first Payment of Three Hundred Pounds----That though, by the said Agreement, the said Myer was not to pay him any Money till the first Day of May instant, yet, after the Signing and Delivery, Mosser asked for Money---That Myer sent home for some, and presently afterwards offered him five or six Half Johannes's, and told him to take what he wanted, upon which Mosser took up two, and got Paper from the said Deponent to wrap them up in---That the said Agreement, by which Myer was to pay One Thousand Pounds, was left in the said Deponent's Hands, as a Security for Mosser---And that the next Day after the Day of Sale aforesaid, the said Mosser gave him, this Deponent, Twenty Shillings, which he said was all of the Half Johannes's he received from Myer, in Part of his Expences. HENRY BOUGH.

Philadelphia, April 1770

EIGHTY dozen of graſs, cradling and briar ſcythes, and ninety dozen of ſickles, made ready for the enſuing ſeaſon, a quantity of ſtraw knives, tanners knives, and drawing knives, ſeveral pair of ſmith's bellows, iron work for griſt-mills, the ſpindles and rines made after the old or new method; clothiers, timber, packing, tobacco, and other large ſcrews; ſaw-mill and fulling-mill irons; large ſcale-beams, for millers or larger draughts; all made by the ſubſcriber, living at the ſign of the Scythe and Sickle, in Market-ſtreet, who believes they will prove as good as any made elſewhere; which he will ſell at reaſonable rates, wholeſale or retail, warranted or unwarranted.----He has for ſale, a good copper ſtill, of about 85 gallons, at Two Shillings per pound, and its tin worm, at One Shilling and Sixpence per pound, alſo black-lead crucibles, of John Stephens's make, known to be good.

Whereas ſome merchants of this city have, for theſe 5 or 6 years paſt, imported from Great-Britain, large quantities of ſickles, ſtamped S. PACHALL, in imitation (as I apprehend) of my ſtamp, which is S. PASCHALL, and on the credit thereof, have ſold great quantities, many of which have been brought to me by farmers to alter, who aſſured me they bought them for my make, and as the workmanſhip is by no means equal to thoſe formerly made by me, I therefore acquaint the public with this deception, which may eaſily be detected, as the letter S, between the A and C, is left out in the ſtamp on the Engliſh ſickle. I ſhould have notified this difference to the public at their firſt appearance, but had then declined the trade, and as I am now deſirous of eſtabliſhing my ſon in the ſame buſineſs (who is an apprentice to me) think it a duty to the public, and my own character, to acquaint them therewith.

Tbc. 3M. STEPHEN PASCHALL.

ONE HUNDRED and Twenty DOZEN of SICKLES, ready prepared for the Harveſt, by JAMES HENDRICKS, Cutler, at the Sign of the Sickle, the 4th Door above the Priſon, in Market-ſtreet; theſe Sickles are carefully made, will be ſold at the loweſt Rates, and enſured to be good.

For KINGSTON, in JAMAICA,

The SHIP
CLARENDON,
JAMES CARR, Commander;

A fine new Ship, has excellent Accommodations for Paſſengers, and will ſail in about three Weeks. For Paſſage, pleaſe to apply to ALEXANDER LUNAN, or ſaid Commander, at the London Coffee-Houſe.

ABSENTED from the ſhip Betſy, Seymour Hood, maſter, an apprentice, named Samuel Moate, about 16 years of age, born in or near Liverpool, he is ſlim, of a brown complexion, wears his own brown hair, coarſe blue jacket, and check ſhirt, long trowſers, much worn, light coloured yarn ſtockings, ſhoes almoſt new, with large pewter buckles, ſmall round hat, talks much, and hath been ſeveral years on board a man of war;----hath perſuaded away with him, John Pierce, a Welſh indented ſervant, born in Monmouthſhire, about 5 feet 6 inches high, a light complexion, dark ſhort hair, brought up to farming buſineſs; had on, a brown coat and breeches, check ſhirt, and a white one with him, light yarn ſtockings, half worn ſhoes, pewter buckles, and ſmall round hat. Whoever will bring ſaid apprentice and ſervant to the ſubſcriber, ſhall receive for the firſt Thirty Pence, and for the Welſhman Thirty Shillings, and reaſonable charges, by SEYMOUR HOOD.

WAS ſtolen out of the ſubſcriber's houſe, in Benſalem townſhip, Bucks county, on the firſt of this inſtant May, ſeveral articles hereafter mentioned, viz. One white cloth coat, with mohair buttons, 1 black velvet jacket, 1 white cloth ditto, 1 nankeen ditto, and 1 white cotton ditto, a beaver hat, 2 pair of cotton ſtockings, a woman's ſhort black velvet cloak, 1 long camblet ditto, 1 black quilt, 1 red ditto, 4 chints gowns, of different colours, 3 white handkerchiefs, 2 red ditto, and 1 blue ditto, 8 mens ſhirts, 6 whereof are holland, and 2 homeſpun, 6 womens ſhifts, 3 pair of homeſpun ſheets, 1 pair of womens ſhoes, with ſilver buckles in them, 1 homeſpun blanket, 2 gauze aprons, 1 holland ditto, and ſundry more, too tedious to mention. Whoever takes up and ſecures the thief in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſhall receive Three Pounds reward, paid by

THREE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away laſt New-year's day, from the ſubſcriber, in Montgomery townſhip, Philadelphia county, a ſervant man, named THOMAS LYNCH, who was born in Queen's county, in Ireland, and took ſhipping at Dublin with Captain Story, and arrived at Philadelphia laſt September, is between 19 and 20 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well ſet, full faced, and freſh coloured, brown curled hair; had on, when he went away, a felt hat, a good blue cloth coat, cloſe bodied, with a falling collar, mohair buttons, a jacket without ſleeves, the fore part of a browniſh colour, the back part of a different colour, with a ſtrip of white down the back, very remarkable, good buckſkin breeches, with braſs buttons, and ſtrings to the knees, homeſpun flaxen ſhirt, two pair of ſtockings, one of a blue and white, the other a brown colour, neats leather ſhoes, and ſteel buckles, has been brought up to the farming buſineſs, and ſays his father was a conſiderable farmer in his time, who died the fall before he came away; as he is a likely fellow, and has but little of the brogue on his tongue, and had good cloaths on when he when he went away, it is likely he has not been miſtruſted for a ſervant. Whoever takes him up, and brings him home, or ſecures him in any goal, ſo as his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, paid by
